

7.1100 INFORMATION PROVIDED BY APPLICANT OR EMPLOYEE

Legal References: G.S. 115C-47(18), -325(e)(1)(o)

All information provided to the FLA Board and/or Principal by an applicant for employment or by an employee must be true, accurate, and complete to the best of that applicant's or employee's knowledge. Presenting information to the FLA Board and/or Principal that is intended to defraud, falsify, materially misrepresent, or conceal the truth shall be considered just cause for terminating the application process or, as a violation of Board policy, grounds for dismissing an employee.
